RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On October 1, 2020, Angela White filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination she received on October 1, 2019. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 16, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case because her claim meets the Table criteria for SIRVA. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1, 5. Specifically, Petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration that would explain the alleged signs, symptoms, examination findings, and/or diagnostic studies occurring after vaccination; Petitioner suffered the onset of pain within 48 hours of vaccination; Petitioner's pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain Petitioner's symptoms. Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of her injury for more than six months after vaccination. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
